War Chest Drive Far From Goal

Marin City's faltering War Chest Drive will get a shot in the arm next week, when a renewed campaign will be opened through the school.

A message urging contributions to the local effort will be sent to the home of each school child. The children of the class room which return the most pledges will be presented with a room gift, as a gesture of appreciation from the Marin City Council, sponsor of the drive here.

Marin City people who have not yet contributed their quota to the drive to aid home front causes, civilians in war-torn countries, and our prisoners of war are urged to sign pledges now.

According to the latest figures from Mrs. W. C. Billingsley, chairman of the drive, Marin City has collected $250 of its $1000 goal. Another $200 is pledged, she reports.

Those who seek further information or who desire to contribute should contact Mrs. W. C. Billingsley at Apt. A15-116, or phone Sausalito 568J, or call at the Marin Citizen office in Bldg. 402.

City Council Election on November 22

Marin City's own town election, to select representatives to the city council, will be held here Wednesday, November 22.

The nominating period opens this Sunday, November 5, and closes Wednesday noon, November 15.

Every resident of Marin City, regardless of term of residence, who is 21 years of age or older, is eligible to run for council.

There are eight positions open; one in Apartment District A, two in Apartment District B, three in House District C, and two in Hill District D.

Those councilmen whose terms of office have expired are Mrs. Carrie E. Percy, Jess Draper, Mrs. Emma Flynn, Walter Del Tredici, Dan Allen, Verne Lindburg, N. B. Campbell and Albert Fowler.

To be placed on the ballot for the November 22 election, local citizens must first secure a nomination petition from the lobby of the Community House or Rental Office, or Project Services Bldg. 401.

The nomination is completed when the candidate secures 20 residents' signatures on the petition and has turned it in by noon, November 15.

This local election is held by and for the people in Marin City. The council members are democratically elected to represent the people of Marin City and to "bargain for them" with the management of this housing project.

Class Added

A new combined third and fourth grade class was opened at the Marin City school this week. The additional class has reduced room loads to approximately 40 children per class.

The teacher of the new morning grade is Mrs. Marcella Wille.

Yanks Head For Siegfried Line

Troops of the Seventh Army follow a slippery farmland irrigation ditch near Remiremont, France, before crossing the Moselle River in pursuit of the Nazis who are retreating toward the southern portion of the Siegfried line.

Mrs. Anderson of Marin City Christens USS Tamalpais

The Navy oiler U.S.S. Tamalpais was christened at Marinship last Sunday by Mrs. H. B. Anderson, yard day worker and Marin City resident at A3-23.

Mrs. Anderson and the maid of honor, Miss Else Boye of Mill Valley, were selected through a drawing among all Marinship workers who are contributing to the yard Treasure Chest. The sponsor's husband, Harry, is a pipe-fitter leaderman, also on day shift. They have a daughter, Mrs. Lawrence Maxwell, also part of the launching party, who works in the warehouse on the swing shift.

The Anderson's son, Sergeant Bernard Anderson, is in the Marine Corps, stationed in the South Pacific.

The Andersons have worked at the yard for more than two years.

Launching of the ship, which is named for nearby Mount Tamalpais, was the high point of a series of activities which made up the day-long program of Marinship Flagship Day. All 15,000 yard workers and residents of Marin County were invited to bring their families. Other events of the day included a parade through the mile-long shipyard, tour of a tanker and a ferry trip to and from San Francisco.

"Without ships of this type the operations of our great battle fleet would be impossible," declared Vice Admiral David W. Bagley, commander of the Western Sea Frontier, as he accepted a Marinship flag from the hands of L. H. Lucas, Hull Supervisor, whose men built the powerful 10,000 horsepower ship. The flag will be placed aboard the oiler when she is commissioned, denominating her as flagship of the Marinship fleet.

Welcome was expressed to those present by K. K. Bechtel, president of Marinship Corporation. Master of Ceremonies was W. E. Waste, vice president and general manager.

Music was provided both for the parade and for the launching by the Treasure Island Band, under direction of Specialist Wm. Fitzpatrick, and the Port of Embarkation Band of Fort Mason, under direction of Warrant Officer Al C. Tilton. Also in the parade was a band under direction of Joe Brigan-di, Marinship employee. The Navy Hymn was sung by San Francisco WAVES Barracks Choir, under direction of Specialist K. Q. Major.

Invocation was offered by Captain E. L. Ackiss, USN, Ch. C., district chaplain, 12th Naval District. Launching Narrator was R. W. Adams, Marinship Employee Relations Manager. The flag was raised by a group of Boy Scouts from Troop 1, Mill Valley, under direction of Scoutmaster Robert Goff.

Painted on the bow of the 62nd ship to be launched at the Sausalito shipyard in 25 months was a painting of the Marinship flag, with Mt. Tamalpais in the background.

This ship is the last of six auxiliary oilers being built and converted to U. S. Navy specifications at Marinship, in addition to merchant tankers also under construction. The ship is 523 feet long, and is designed to carry gasoline to our Navy's Pacific attack.

English As She Is Spoke Japanese Twist Language

"The Rules of the Road in Japan", which were issued with his driver's license to Dr. John W. Colbert when in Japan in 1912, are as follows:

"At the rise of the hand of policeman, stop rapidly. Do not pass him by or otherwise disrespect him."

"When a passenger of the foot hove in sight, tootle the horn trumpet to him melodiously at first. If he still obstacles your passage, tootle him with vigour and express by word of the mouth the warning, 'Hi, Hi!'"

"Beware of the wandering horse that he shall not take fright as you pass him. Do not explode the exhaust box at him. Go soothingly by, or stop by the road-side till he pass away."

"Give big space to the festive dog that make sport in the roadway. Avoid entanglement of dog with your wheel-spokes."

"Go soothingly on the grease-mud, as there lurk the skid demon. Press the brake of the foot as you roll round the corners to save the collapse and tie-up."

"The misuse of the language is comical," remarks Dr. Colbert, "until we realize that here is reflected the stubborn pride and attitude of Japan as a nation and the individual Japanese person."

"Having a slight knowledge of English, the officials were too proud to unbend enough to make sure the language was properly used."

First Big Election In City Expected To Call Out Heavy Vote

Next Tuesday, November 7, the 1499 registered voters of Marin City will go to the polls to vote in the first Presidential election to be held in this war housing project. Candidates for President and Vice President appearing on the ballot are Republicans Thomas E. Dewey and John W. Bricker; Democrats Franklin Delano Roosevelt and Harry S. Truman; Prohibitionists

Claude A. Watson and Andrew Johnson.

The Congressional contest is for United States Senator, with Democrat Sheridan Downey running again Republican Frederick F. Houser.

UNOPPOSED

Running unopposed in this final election are Clarence F. Lea, Representative in Congress 1st District; Thomas F. Keating, State Senator, 13th District; and Richard H. McCollister, member of the Assembly, 7th District.

Judicial positions on the ballot are B. Rey Schauer for Associate Justice of the Supreme Court, and Homer R. Spence for Associate Justice, District Court of Appeal, 1st Appellate District, Division Two.

In addition, there are 12 propositions appearing on the ballot, which voters are being asked to approve or reject. An outline of these amendments, with recommendations by labor groups, will be found in the editorial column of this paper.

POLLING PLACES

There are three voting precincts in Marin City. They are the Medical Center, 312; Fire House, 313; Community House lounge, 314. Lists of the voters who are to vote at each polling place will be posted outside each of the designated polls.

The polls will be open from 7 a.m. to 7 p.m.

Workers are entitled to whatever time off is necessary for them to vote, up to two hours, between the time of opening and the time of closing the polls.

ELECTION WORKERS

Serving on the election board at the Medical Center will be Edwin Litch, Margaret Phillips, Emma Rankin, Gertrude Ebertzsch, Zoe A. Mathews and Blanche Abrams.

At the Fire House poll, election board members are Julia Hobson, Isobel Bremer, Madeline Allen, E. M. Small, H. C. Bickerton and Elizabeth Scherer.

Workers at the Community House polling place will be Fredricka Barbes, Ruth Cooper, Harriet MacIver, Frank Barbes and Goldyn Fowler.

New Recreation Leader Joins Local Staff

Mrs. Betty Waltz joined Marin City's recreation department staff this week, replacing Mrs. Martha Roberts, who is leaving tomorrow for New York.

Mrs. Waltz will take over the community craft classes, as well as working in the physical education program.

She received her recreation training at the University of Nevada, and worked in Reno as a recreation instructor.

New Canteens Provide Hot Food for Marinship Workers

The answer to Marinship's lunchtime needs came this Wednesday, with the opening of two new inyard canteens, serving hot food to shipyard workers.

The two canteens, first in a series of six such units to open, came after a year-long struggle for adequate feeding facilities at the yard.

Dry shelters in which to sit and eat the hot food is still lacking. However, George Hayward, chairman of the AFL Metal Trades Council Food Committee, said: "In this particular yard, hot food now is the basic need of the workers."

His opinion of the new meal set-up is: "Modern, complete, and meets all requirements set forth by the committee."

The canteens are located opposite Way No. 5 and at the Outfitting Docks. Four other such units will open next Tuesday noon, announces the yard management.

Each of the special food-dispensing buildings is attractively painted, and is named for one of the leading ships built at the yard. Built-in electrical fixtures keep the pre-served food hot until it is removed by the worker who has dropped his money in the turnstile. The new units will be open for lunch periods of all shifts.

Cost of the meals is 50 or 25 cents. One portion of each canteen provides sandwiches, ice cream, fruit, coffee and cigarettes.

Workers Rush Construction Of New Oiler

At Marinship, workmen were today rushing to completion the erection of the tanker S. S. Inglewood Hills, named in honor of the important oil producing area of Los Angeles county. Keel was laid at the shipyard on September 25, 1944.

At the present rate of construction it is expected that the powerful oil-carrying ship will be launched by Armistice Day, November 11, and delivered into service in December.

This ship is the eighth of a series of 32 tankers which are being built.

The rapid construction of this permanent-type ship is explained by the technique of large pre-assemblies by which sections weighing as much as a hundred tons are constructed separately and then assembled to form the hull of the ship. This method has been developed to a high pitch of perfection by Marinship, which has been in existence only 31 months.

The 15,000 workers at Marinship have been working on the S. S. Inglewood Hills, as well as two other types of liquid-carrying vessels. All ships are being built for the U. S. Maritime Commission, to become a permanent part of our nation's war and peace-time fleet.

Among the workers are many from Los Angeles county who have come to Marinship for the duration to help in construction of these vital implements of war.

We Enjoy Seeing—

Mrs. Ilona Bellak, picking flowers in front of the Medical Center. "They brighten up our offices and waiting room," she says. Mrs. Bellak invites anyone who has a flower garden to share their blooms, and bring a few into the center now and then.

Local Medical Plan Meets Emergencies

"The Medical Center staff will always do everything possible to meet an emergency," states Dr. John Colbert, director.

"However, only members belonging to the CPS medical plan are eligible for further care.

"Our staff is always ready to assist in contacting local physicians for those who do not enjoy the benefits of our local health organization, but we cannot act in the capacity of a private physician," he remarked.

Navy Dance Draws Crowd From City

Twenty-four Negro women and girls from Marin City attended the Treasure Island Frolic, sponsored by the Navy, on October 25.

Transported there by Navy bus, they were escorted to the recreation building which was beautifully decorated with chrysanthemums, asters, and golden leaves among pumpkins, Halloween decorations and yellow candles.

The girls were all presented with gardenias for their hair.

The dances are a USO service sponsored by the recreation department of the United States Navy.

Each dance is carefully chaperoned by ladies from Berkeley, Oakland, San Francisco, Marin City, and other Bay area USO groups.

The next affair is a pre-Thanksgiving dance, scheduled for November 14 at 7:30 p.m.

Girls who would like to attend as junior hostesses should sign up at the local USO Travelers' Aid Cottage before 10 a.m. of the day of the dance.

Storage and Color Topics At Institute

Leslie I. Nichols of Palo Alto will speak on "Planned Storage Space" at the next meeting of the Home Planners' Institute at Tamalpais Center Monday, November 6, at 8 p.m.

He will share the program with Frank T. Ross, special representative of the National Lead Company, who will discuss "Color in the Home."

This is the fourth in a series of courses sponsored by county merchants and the Marin Junior College on post-war home planning. All are invited to attend. There is no fee.

Baby Won't Be An Orphan After All, Says Doctor

Pretty young Mrs. Agnes Oliver, A27-211, swallowed a pin while she was putting up new curtains in her apartment last Friday night.

Fearing she would surely die, she rushed over to the Medical Center, wailing that her husband was in service and who would take care of her baby when she was gone?

Quiet, kindly Dr. John Colbert calmed her fears and ordered the simple but effective treatment, customary in such cases.

The next day, Mrs. Oliver went to work as usual, and the Oliver baby can count on having her mother for a long, long time.

Girl Scouts Are Hostesses for Parents, Friends

Investiture services for Marin City Girl Scouts were held last Friday in the music room of the local school building.

Following the ceremony, the newly-inducted Scouts escorted their parents and teachers into the teachers' lounge where refreshments were served.

Tea and coffee were poured by the girls, and cookies, which were made by the Scouts, were

The Community Sunday School meets at 10 a.m. with classes for all ages.

The Girls' Club and Choir meets Thursdays at 7 p.m. in the lounge room of the Community House.

The Boys' Club meets in Bldg. 399 Saturday evenings, from 7 to 9.

In Pony Express Days, fresh horses and strong men had to be ready to take up the burden from those who had wearied. There always came then—as there always comes now—the vital need for a change!

IT'S TIME FOR A CHANGE...

Reckless experiments of the Communist-backed New Deal have all but wrecked our national economy.

That's Why It's Time for a Change!

The New Deal philosophy of "plowing under" our resources instead of "digging up" new jobs . . . of destroying instead of producing more . . . prolonged the depression for seven long, dreary years.

That's Why It's Time for a Change!

Our national debt was nearly doubled between 1933 and 1940 . . . and 10,000,000 Americans still had no jobs.

That's Why It's Time for a Change!

New Deal bungling, inefficiency and waste have needlessly multiplied taxes on every American. Bureaucratic red tape reaches for every paycheck like the tentacles of an octopus.

That's Why It's Time for a Change!

The New Deal's candidate for Vice-President . . . who could become President . . . is a product of one of the most corrupt political machines of modern times!

That's Why It's Time for a Change!

Forced contributions from union labor by the CIO Political Action Committee is helping to finance the New Deal campaign.

That's Why It's Time for a Change!

Sidney Hillman and Earl Browder . . . the former, head of the CIO Political Action Committee; the latter, a Communist, draft dodger and convict pardoned by President Roosevelt. Both are leaders in the New Deal campaign.

That's Why It's Time for a Change!

ADD THIS UP . . . what it amounts to is Dictatorship . . . the very threat that Americans are fighting against. Republicans, Democrats and Independents alike . . . go to the polls on November 7th and help return Our Government to its people.

DON'T SABOTAGE VICTORY

Proposition No. 12 is opposed by all of labor, both AFL and CIO. Its defeat has been urged by the California Chamber of Commerce, by the California Teachers Association, the California State Grange, and by scores of other patriotic groups. Governor Earl Warren and Attorney General Robert W. Kenny have urged a NO vote on the measure.

Proposition No. 12 would outlaw every contract now in force between labor and management. Wages would drop. Chaos would be created in war industries. We need ships, not disruption.

Youngsters Turn Out in Full Force for Hallowe'en Party

The Marin City Community House was jammed last Tuesday night by nearly 700 excited and costumed youngsters who came to celebrate Hallowe'en with a parade, a play, movies, music, and refreshments.

One of the big highlights of the entertainment was "The Wicked Witch", a thriller produced by the Children's Club under direction of Mrs. Martha Roberts.

Characters in the stage success were, the King, Frank Niebaum; Queen, Lois Roser; Princess, Jacqueline Splean; Cap and Bells, Richard Walenta; Witch, Elizabeth Roberts; Moonbeam, Donna Camerota; and Standing Army, Billy Richardson, Arthur Walenta, and Bill Straughn.

The professional aspect of the performance was enhanced by excellent backstage handling from teenier assistants.

Following a series of movie shorts, the biggest event of the evening—costume prizes—were awarded.

First prize went to Lenora May Scott, for the prettiest costume. She was attired in a black and orange crepe dress, topped by a black derby.

The most original award went to Thomas Turk, who was tricked out in a stiff-armed scarecrow garb.

The third first prize went to a quartet of youngsters representing horse and buggy days, with the accent on the horse. These winners, who divided the $3 award, were twins Marvin and Melvin Karn, Bobbie Michelson, and Larry Vanderwilt.

Winners of $1 prizes were Katherine Lou Walls, Arline Johnson, Lorraine Steinmetz, Nina Coleman, Gwendolyn Sandoz, Toby Allen, Bobbie Del Tredici, Patty Ann and Donna Lee Breed, Dean and Duane Andring.

The party concluded with serving of individual ice cream cups.

Master of ceremonies was Vern Lindburg, chairman of the public affairs committee of the Marin City Council, which sponsored the party.

He was assisted by Mrs. Milton Percy, Mrs. Earl James, Mrs. Arthur Walenta, Miss Ethel Johnson, Dan Allen, and Mrs. Martha Roberts.

Skeleton and Pumpkins at Kids' Party

A blue-lighted room, ghostly white shapes, and a dangling skeleton were the introduction to a Hallowe'en party given by Mrs. William Richardson at House 275 for her two sons, Billy and Lee and their friends.

During the evening the children dodged for apples which had pennies and dimes stuck in them, and ate doughnuts suspended by strings.

The festivities included prizes for the prettiest, most original and funniest costumes. Billy amused his guests with tricks of magic.

Assisting at the party were Mrs. V. J. Pugmire, Mrs. Herman Niebaum and Mrs. Dutch Biddick. They served the young guests peanut butter sandwiches cut in pumpkin shapes, potato chips, soda pop, cup cakes with pumpkin faces, and candy-filled novelties.

"The ghostly white shapes which so excited the children served two purposes," pointed out Mrs. Richardson. "They created an Hallowe'en atmosphere—plus protecting the furniture,

Five Stitches For Clea After Scooter Accident

Little Clea Callahan, House 479, wishes the "scooter" public would observe the traffic rules. One careless driver zoomed by her so closely last Monday that the scooter cut an ugly gash in her right leg.

"But," according to Clea, "the five stitches weren't bad at all because the Medical Center doctor used some medicine which gave me a wooden leg for a little while."

She couldn't feel the stitches, and before her real leg came back, she was sound asleep in her own bed.

The County Council of the Parent-Teacher Association will meet in Marin City November 15 from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m. at the Community House lounge.

War Fathers Staging Second Jamboree for Wounded Boys

It will be a "repeat performance" on Friday evening, November 10, when the Marinship War Fathers' Club stages its second annual Convalescent Servicemen's Jamboree at the Scottish Rite Auditorium, in San Francisco, at 8 p.m.

On that evening, Marinship workers who are themselves fathers of boys in the fighting forces, will be hosts to 500 wounded soldiers, sailors and marines, for an evening of entertainment.

Last year's turnout of commanding officers of the armed forces, augmented by Governor Earl Warren, was the highlight of the Armistice Day observances in northern California. Plans call for this year's program to be equally replete with governmental and military dignitaries.

Entertainment headliners will also be on hand to entertain with music and dance.

All employees at the Sausalito shipyard, and the general public, are invited to sponsor a wounded veteran of World War II at the jamboree by purchasing a ticket for $1.25 that also entitles the sponsor to take part in the spectacular entertainment.

"The War Fathers' Jamboree is a genuine treat for wounded boys who are streaming back from the Pacific islands," declared Ruger Hurd, president of the worker's club. "We make arrangements through medical officers at service hospitals to bring the boys and entertain them with an excellent floor show, refreshments, cigarettes, and dancing. AWVS hostesses will be on hand to dance with the boys who are able to do so.

"We try to make every one of these boys feel, in spite of his injury and being away from home, that Dads like his own haven't forgotten him."

Reception committee, as named by Hurd, includes R. W. Adams, W. E. Waste, and Robert Digges. Tickets and programs are under the direction of Charles Hunter. General arrangements committee is composed of R. C. Michener, Jack Hardie, Charles Hunter, Bill Gable, Lou Samish, Oscar Wolfe, Lou Marion, Ed Snyder, Bill Richards, Bruce Vernon and Art Bruschini.

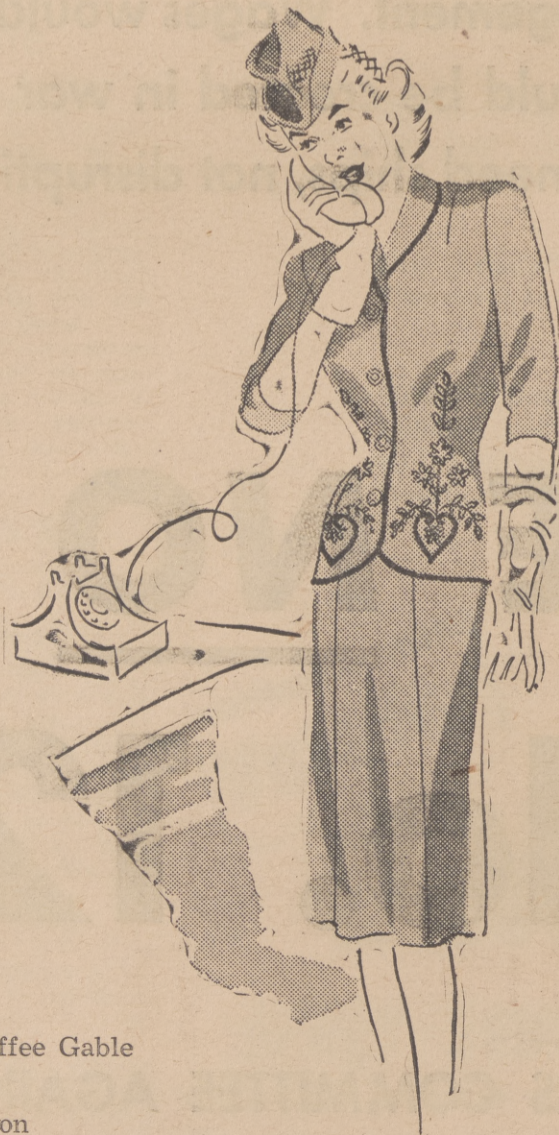

Tickets are already on sale at Marinship at the Marin-er office, in the Service Building, Recreation Office at Gate 3, and at Administration Bldg., Reception Desk.

Money from the paper salvage drive at the school will be used to purchase class room pictures and equipment.

The first Friday of every month is paper salvage day at the Marin City school.

Speaker From Federation at Women's Club

The Women's Club had as their speaker last Wednesday evening, Mrs. Martin Newell, first vice president and extension secretary of the State Federation of Women's Clubs.

Mrs. Arthur Hart, Intermediate Girl Scout Leader, also spoke to the group about sponsoring the Girl Scouts in Marin City.

The evening's program included initiation of new members into the club.

Further plans were made for the apron sale to be held December 2, and Mrs. G. W. Miller donated a crocheted dresser scarf, on which chances are being sold. She also accepted the chairmanship of a food sale to be held in connection with the apron sale.

The club regrets losing Mary Galbraith. Mr. and Mrs. Galbraith moved November 1 to San Francisco. Mrs. Ed Mathews was elected vice president to succeed her.

Galbraiths, City Pioneers, Move Away

Mr. and Mrs. George Galbraith, pioneer residents of Marin City, left town last Wednesday to make their war-time home at the Wisconsin housing project in San Francisco. Their new home is near Hunter's Point, where Galbraith, former Marinship pipefitter foreman, will be near his civil service job.

Mrs. Galbraith has led an active community life in the more than two years they have lived in this housing project. She was the first chairman of the first Tenants' League in the town. She has been a leader in the Red Cross canteen work, and when the local canteen was discontinued, followed through with her job on the Sausalito unit. She has recently been working with the group at the Hamilton Field canteen which is serving soldiers in the Army Transport Corps.

Mrs. Galbraith's last community act in the town was resigning as vice-president of the Marin City Women's Club, of which she was a charter member.

Although she is leaving, Mrs. Galbraith plans not to forget Marin where, she assures her friends, she "has had a wonderful time". Mrs. Galbraith will be back with the club for its apron sale in December.

A meeting of next-of-kin and close relatives of prisoners of war and civilian internees from Marin County has been called by the Home Service Corps of the local Red Cross Chapter for 8 p.m., Friday, November 10, at Parish Hall, St. Paul's Church, Mission and De Hiery Streets, San Rafael.

Due to the nature of the meeting invitations have been limited to next-of-kin and close relatives only, according to Mrs. J. L. Heywood, chairman of the Home Service Corps.

The Week at Your Marin County Theatres

This is the year of child stars, with talented kids in greater demand than they have ever been, with the possible exception of Shirley Temple.

Central Casting boasts 1,500 small thespians whose mothers hang around the telephone day and night, waiting to snatch off their prodigies' curl papers and rush them to the casting directors. Every ambitious mother in the business thinks she has a Peggy Ann Garner, a Roddy McDowall, a Margaret O'Brien, an Elizabeth Taylor, a Jackie Jenkins, or a Ted Donaldson in her home.

Movie moguls are capitalizing on stories with child characters. Jim Ryan of 20th Century-Fox told me: "The problem isn't to find kids with talent and looks; our difficulty is to select the ideal one child for the part out of the mob of applicants."

Small stars usually disappear when they reach the awkward age. Occasionally they come back in their teens as ingenues, as did Shirley Temple, Anita Louise, and Jane Withers. But the first awkward-age star of magnitude to hit the screen is 20th Century's Peggy Ann Garner, now playing Francie in Betty Smith's current hit, "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn."

Acting Plum

This is the most important role ever trusted to any young player. It fell to Peggy Ann after her distinguished performance as the child Nora in "The Keys of the Kingdom"—also the child in "Jane Eyre."

This 12-year-old, who works 71 out of the 73 days required by the picture for shooting, gets two days' rest before going into "Nob Hill," where she plays Katy, a little Irish immigrant child, an emotional and important role.

She's not a pretty child in the conventional sense; she has beautiful bone structure, and a face full of character that takes on beauty when the role demands.

On Masculine Side

Another child star who promises to weather the grim years that threw Jackie Coogan, Freddie Bartholomew, Dickie Moore, and Peter Lawford out of pictures for a time is Roddy McDowall. His performances are predicated on sheer technique and vast spiritual comprehension of the adult heart. He has a unique niche in Hollywood star ratings.

In "The Keys of the Kingdom," young McDowall plays Francis Chisholm as a boy—a role as appealing as Hiu in "How Green Was My Valley," which shot him to stardom over night. He is now in Kanab, Utah, making "Thunderhead," another Mary O'Hara story and a sequel to "My Friend Flicka." The tale has majestic outdoor settings, gives Roddy the sort of things he loves best, working with animals.

Born That Way

Another small fry who promises to have such a record is Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's seven-year-old Margaret O'Brien. This philosophical pixie is no run-of-the-mill beauty, either. Small Margaret's face has quality and spirit rather than baby beauty. She comes of a dancing family—both her mother and aunt are talented performers.

In "Sunday Dinner for a Soldier" is Connie Marshall, a mini-marvel who, like Margaret O'Brien and Peggy Ann Garner, became known as a model and magazine cover child before clicking with movie cameras. She's lined up against Bobby Driscoll and Billy Cummins, two scene stealers who won their spurs in "The Sullivans." This is Connie's first picture, but she's a child to keep your eyes on.

Still They Come

I spotted George Noakes for a winner in "Going My Way." So did 20th, I guess, because they grabbed him for the part of Andrew in "The Keys of the Kingdom." He's an English type whose soft-checked charm hides an athlete's physique.

There's Ted Donaldson, from "A Tree Grows in Brooklyn," and Skippie Homeier, who plays nasty Nazi kids superbly. Elizabeth Taylor, who has a steadily mounting following and will be co-starred with Rooney in "National Velvet." Oh, and there's Jackie Jenkins of "The Human Comedy," who wrapped himself about our hearts in a brief two hours. The list is as long as your arm and crammed with talent.

Looking a Way Ahead

Warners have bought 15 acres on top of Hollywood Hills for a television studio, which they figure it will take five years to build and equip... At Republic, on "A Song for Miss Julie's" set, are Roger Clark, who's directly descended from Capt. William Clark of famed Lewis and Clark expedition, which opened up the northwest country, and Margaret Early, who claims Confederate General Jubal Early as a great grand uncle. She plays opposite Roger.

Anyone New in Your Family?

Register additions to your family at the Rental Office for Medical Center care, this week, urges Ilona Bellak, head nurse.

The additions include relatives, friends and new babies. Don't forget the babies, says Nurse Bellak, they're individuals, too!

Not Because any Man Is INDESPENSABLE!

But, we feel that at this juncture in the history of our country and the world, it is unthinkable that the American people should repudiate Roosevelt.

Starting with the Atlantic Charter, and step by step at Casa Blanca, Cairo, Teheran, Quebec and Dumbarton Oaks, the leaders of the United Nations have developed the plans to win the war and secure the peace. In all of this, Roosevelt has been a dominant figure.

The last 25 years have proven the need for a world organization with the power to enforce international peace and justice.

(On this question, the President has made his position crystal clear. Dewey has not.)

This can't be achieved by the acknowledged isolationists forces who urge the election of Dewey. Of this we can be certain!

A victory for Dewey can only be interpreted as a victory for that group who destroyed all hope for lasting peace after the last war.

The guaranteeing of future peace obscures all other issues in this campaign.

We can best serve the ideal of lasting peace by re-electing President Roosevelt and by re-electing Senator Downey as a confirmed supporter of those ideals.

Of immediate interest close to home are our pitifully inadequate school facilities in Marin City.

If Amendment No. 9 is adopted, our state aid for the Marin City school will be increased 30 per cent.

While No. 12 would most likely be unconstitutional, if it were adopted it would destroy Labor Unions—the biggest influence in raising the American standard of living above that of the rest of the world.

Family Life

By Vox Populus

Emma was doing the dishes and I was sitting with my shoes off in our living room reading the paper. I had just got the younger kids bedded down and kissed them good night. You know what that feeling is, when the little shavers have at last gone to bed and the house is quiet and peace comes like stillness in the country.

But Emma was saying something. I'd better stop reading and listen for a moment.

"Vox, my dear," says she, "I think you're too often cross with the children lately. You rant at them and spank them too often."

I gulped. I thought I to myself, "You don't seem to remember Emma how you sailed into them yourself this morning — raving and shouting." A black anger started rising in me.

Emma, still doing the dishes, went on. "Vox Junior is getting so he sort of looks sullen at us. He just sets there with his face like granite and his jaw tight. I know I get out of patience, too. But we got to do something different."

I gulped. Thought I to my the kitchen came the noise of scrubbing pans and turning on the hot water, and I made the paper rustle as I went back to reading.

But I wasn't reading. I was thinking. "Who am I to say, my dear wife can't make a suggestion to me. I do spank too often. I let black anger rise in me. I'm not pleasant with the kids. They're only little shavers, cute little shavers, and at times they look at me so worshipfully."

"They do take time undressing, and dilly-dally with playing, and don't get to bed as quickly as I want them to, when I'm tired."

"But I must have more patience. I spank not because they're really naughty, but because I'm out of sorts. Spanking ought to be very rare. Look how Vox Junior shakes and sulks at times when I scold him. He has my temper also. "Perhaps, if I tried kidding

Civilian Aid In Airplane Crashes Asked

A joint Army-Navy program which calls for the cooperation of every civilian in Marin County, designed to save the lives of flying personnel in aircraft accidents, has been announced by Vice Admiral David W. Bagley, commander Western Sea Frontier, and Brigadier General J. E. Parker, commanding Fourth Air Force.

"Our big job," the General declared, "is to enlist the active assistance of every person in the states of California, Oregon, Nevada and Washington. Whenever they see or hear of a plane accident, we want them without delay to notify their nearest law-enforcement officer, be it constable, police, sheriff or highway patrol."

Admiral Bagley states, "They should report the exact location of the crash, the time of the accident, condition of crew members, their own name and telephone number and any other pertinent information which may help the police and military in performing a rescue job. It is important that every person on the West Coast be told: 'When you see a plane crash, call the police immediately!'" them a bit more and laughing with them and entered into their stories and play — and when I did need to speak, spoke more quietly, more briefly, even kindly, they would pay more attention.

"They're sweet kids and my wife is a dear. I'm going to be more careful. If I just remember to start cheerful, it'll be easy."

Hamilton Field Canteen Aides Are Needed

A 10-hour Canteen Aide course open to both men and women, has been announced this week by Mrs. Clyde Storer, county chairman Red Cross Canteen Corps, opening on Monday evening, November 6, in the new Chemistry Building, Marin Junior College, with Mrs. Kenneth Hawkins, nutrition expert, as instructor.

The purpose of the emergency course, which will hold sessions on Monday, Wednesday and Friday of next week and Monday, November 10, is to provide canteen service in the flight line at Hamilton Field and to inaugurate a canteen service in the AAF Regional and Air Debarkation Hospital at the field.

On Wednesday evening, November 15, a special lecture on military ethics will be given at the Chemistry Building and all members of the Canteen Corps are requested to attend.

Halfway Mark Is Reached in War Chest

With nine days to go in the Marin War Chest Drive for 1944, workers throughout the county report over 50 per cent of the $106,690 goal already in and well organized committees covering the county are expressing their determination to go over the top before Armistice Day, November 11.

Interest is now centering in efforts of Marin's organized labor to contribute its full share to the War Chest. Already the Sheet Metal Workers, from their county-wide membership, have subscribed $2,248 to the Chest.

Mussel Measure In Force Now

The quarantine of mussels has been extended indefinitely, according to announcement made this week by the Marin Health Department. Extension of the time, usually expiring this month, was made due to nine cases of mussel poisoning and two deaths which have occurred in the area south of San Francisco.

Five Tankers Under Way Ships Carry Plane Fuel

Construction of five tanker ships named for important oil areas of Los Angeles, Kern, and Ventura counties, was under way today at the shipyard of Marinship, following keel-layings held recently, it has just been revealed.

Keel for the S. S. Baldwin Hills was laid on September 30; for the S. S. McKittrick Hills on October 9; for the S.S. Newhall Hills, October 16; the S.S. Rincon Hills, October 23; and the S.S. Potrero Hills, October 30. Erection of these ships has been going on 24 hours a day by Marinship's 15,000 workers, since keel-laying.

These five ships are part of a series of 32 permanent-type tankers which are being named for important petroleum areas of California. Each ship will be powered by a modern 8,250 horsepower turbo-electric propulsion motor, capable of speeding huge quantities of gasoline to any war front. They are also designed for use in the post-war period.

Each ship is over 525 feet long, of 16,500 deadweight tons.

Present schedules call for the S.S. Baldwin Hills to be launched about the middle of November, and delivered into service during December; the S.S. McKittrick Hills to be launched late in November, and delivered a month later. The S. S. Newhall Hills is expected to be launched early in December, and be delivered about the first of the year; while the launchings of the S.S. Rincon Hills and S.S. Potrero Hills are planned for December, with delivery dates in January, 1945.

The gasoline delivered to our fighting fronts by a single one of these tankers would send 1,000 four-engined bombers on six round-trip bombing missions to Berlin from British

Nursery School Teacher Needed Now by Center

A teacher for the nursery school at the Child Care Center is urgently needed now, says Mrs. Rose Peterson, director.

Applicants for the position must have some teacher training, but a teacher's diploma is not necessary, she stressed.

Local women, qualified for the job, should see Mrs. Peterson at the center in the Community House immediately.

Junior Red Cross Sends Xmas Gifts

Thirty-one Christmas boxes for the children in war-torn countries were filled and sent to the Senior Red Cross last week by the Junior Red Cross at the Marin City grammar school.

Martha Roberts Leaves

Local Teeners were sorry to hear that Martha Roberts, the Defense Recreation Leader, will be leaving soon for her former home, New York City. We will miss her very much. However, we hope she will be happy in her new home.

The fog seems a little thick lately, or is that just dew? Could it be it's the famous liquid sunshine we hear so much about. Of course we mean the rain.

We are glad to see the Tamalpais News back in the swirl again, even though the upper "400" still keeps it controlled.

It does get a little tiresome reading the same old lines about the same people, but I suppose you kids think the same about us.

Vote No on Proposition No. 12
We suggest that ALL teeners convince their parents to vote NO on Proposition No. 12. This proposition will only lead to unemployment and starvation after the war when jobs become scarce once again. Proposition No. 12 is a threat to our national security and should be voted down again.

This week we are going to include a ballot containing the main candidates in the race for election. That is President and Vice President. If you, as a teener, would like to vote, here is your chance to do it. We, the staff of this column would like to know the real sentiment of the teener citizens of this community, the future citizens of America.

Bob Davidson, prominent teener, has returned from West Virginia for a 15-day furlough. Don't get excited girls, he is engaged. Too bad!

Teener Dance Huge Success

The Teener Costume Dance, held last Friday was a huge success. Those teeners on the committee were: Lynn Draper, Bob Clark, Willie Rombke, and Marvin Gardner. We are sure that the success of the event was due largely to the ability with which the group planned, fixed, and carried out the Teener Dance.

There were several contests during the evening. The first being a Costume Contest. The originality and the cleverness of the costume was the deciding factor in determining its being the winner. There were two prizes in the first contest—a boy's prize and a girl's prize. George Price was the winner for boys. He was dressed as a sweater girl. Pat Ghosrice won the girl's prize. She was dressed as a Hawaiian dancer.

There was a Jitterbug Contest later on during the evening. The prizes were awarded to a sailor and his girl friend. Music was furnished during the entire evening by Ned Appelby and his orchestra. Refreshments were served by Mrs. J. E. Draper. Everyone is looking forward to having another dance soon with Ned Appelby's orchestra.

Are You Satisfied

If this column seems to be less interesting each week it is not because of lack of news. It's the lack of help which has curtailed our efforts. Many of you argue that because of school homework that you have never had time; however, most kids have time for things when they want to find time. I want all teeners, those in high school especially, to look over their schedules and see if they can't help.

There are many advantages in this. Here are a few: first—if you take English from the right teacher, she is apt to give you extra credit for articles written. Also, the editor will refer any cub to the Citizen editor for help.

This above is a very valuable asset. A new angle is now being worked upon, whereby extra citizenship units will be earned. This as yet has not received the sanction of all those necessary. However, we hope that in the near future, it will be taken care of.

ANY ONE INTERESTED IN THIS MATTER CAN SEE BOB GREENWOOD ANY AFTER-NOON EXCEPT TUESDAY AT THE DEPARTMENT STORE, OR COME UP TO BUILDING 401 TUESDAY NIGHT AT 7:30.

Don't forget, only 51 shopping days till Xmas.

The Wise One Observes

Wanted: One girl about 13 or 14 years of age by Lynn Roath. Lynn is 14 years old, five feet, nine inches tall, brown hair and brown eyes. He lives at House 105 and takes the late bus to school every day. (Is this all right, Lynn?)

What is the name of the cute brunette Dennis Pecaut goes with? How about it, Denis? Is it a military secret?

We wonder why we don't see or hear more about Norma Stanley. (Huh?)

Marvin Gardner was in a very stiff condition the other day; he has had too many tough football workouts, poor boy. All the fuss over the skin of some dead pig.

Lyle Carpenter doesn't take after his brother in all ways, especially WOMEN. It seems he has been going steady with Cleta Kirkland for the LONG-EST time and no one has given him credit for it. More fun.

We wonder why Jessie Hoppe is continually bringing McFarland's Super Dooper Candy (plug) to school. Could it be that it puts flame in her frame or bliss in her kiss (plug) like the advertisements say?

George Price overdoes things. Even his sweaters?

'TB' Clinic Checks Spread Of Disease

An average of 12 cases come under observation of Dr. Seymour M. Farber at the diagnostic and consultant clinic sponsored by the Marin County Tuberculosis Association at the Marin Health Department the second Wednesday of each month from 1 to 3:30 p.m.

The clinic has been established by the Tuberculosis Association as the result of the sale of Christmas Seals, and has been opened through the cooperation of Dr. Irving Johnson, Marin health officer. Assisting Dr. Farber is Miss Verna Norton, public health nurse, of the Marin Department. Dr. Farber is from the University of California Medical School and San Francisco City and County Hospital.

An example of the type of work accomplished by the clinic is the case of an elderly man who was examined at a recent clinic and found to have moderately advanced tuberculosis.

Labor Recommends

A brief summary of the 12 propositions appearing on the ballot November 7, with voting recommendations by California's three labor groups, is reprinted for you this week by The Marin Citizen.

Remember it is just as important to vote on proposed measures as to vote on candidates.

The following recommendations are made by the C. I. O., A. F. of L., and the Railroad Brotherhoods:

PROPOSITION NO. 1: $30,000,000 VETERAN'S BOND ISSUE. Proposed as the Veterans' Bond Act of 1943, this measure would provide a fund for loans for the purpose of farms and homes for veterans of World War II substantially the same as was done after World War I.

Recommended Vote: A.F.L., YES; C.I.O., YES; R.R., YES

PROPOSITION NO. 2: VETERANS' TAX EXEMPTIONS. This would extend the present $1,000 assessed value exemption of property from property taxation to additional members of the armed forces.

Recommended Vote: A.F.L., YES; C.I.O., YES; R.R., No Rec.

PROPOSITION No. 3: COMPENSATION OF STATE OFFICIALS. This would authorize Legislature to fix the compensation of the Lieutenant Governor, State Controller, Secretary of State, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and State Treasurer at not less than $5,000 per annum.

Recommended Vote: A.F.L., YES; C.I.O., No Rec; R.R., YES

PROPOSITION No. 4: EXEMPTIONS FROM TAXATION. This would authorize the Legislature to add to present exemptions from property taxation property used exclusively for religious, hospital, or charitable purposes when owned by non-profit organizations established and operated for religious, hospital, or charitable purposes.

Recommended Vote: A.F.L., YES; C.I.O., Yes; R.R., No Rec.

PROPOSITION No. 5: REINSTATEMENT OF PUBLIC OFFICIALS AND EMPLOYEES AFTER MILITARY SERVICE. This would authorize the Legislature to provide for the reinstatement and reemployment of public officials and employees who have resigned to serve or continue service in the armed forces of the United States or the State of California.

Recommended Vote: A.F.L., YES; C.I.O., YES; R.R., YES

PROPOSITION NO. 6: ANNUAL SESSIONS OF LEGISLATURE. This would provide for annual session of the State Legislature and an annual budget for the State of California in place of the biennial procedure now followed.

Recommended Vote: A.F.L., NO; C.I.O., No Rec.; R.R., NO

PROPOSITION No. 7: EXPENSES OF MEMBERS OF LEGISLATURE. This would authorize payment to legislators, in addition to compensation provided by the Constitution, of expenses necessarily incurred while attending regular, special, or extraordinary sessions of the Legislature.

Recommended Vote: A.F.L., YES; C.I.O., No Rec.; R.R., YES

PROPOSITION No. 8: PROPERTY TAXATION. This would provide for the conclusive presumption of validity of tax deeds issued to the State or any taxing agency by reason of delinquent property taxes of assessment, unless held invalid in a court action, within specified time limits.

Recommended Vote: A.F.L., NO; C.I.O., No Rec.; R.R., No Rec.

PROPOSITION No. 9: FUNDS FOR ELEMENTARY SCHOOLS. This would provide that the funds dedicated by the State of California for aid to elementary school districts each year be increased from $60 per pupil in average daily attendance to $80 per pupil.

Recommended Vote: A.F.L., YES; C.I.O., YES; R.R., YES

PROPOSITION No. 10: SALARIES OF ELECTIVE OFFICIALS. This would provide that the Legislature may suspend the constitutional provisions prohibiting increase of salaries of elective officials during their term of office.

Recommended Vote: A.F.L., YES; C.I.O., No Rec.; R.R., No Rec.

PROPOSITION No. 11: $60 AT 60 PENSION PLAN. This would require the payment of at least $60 per month at 60 years of age for California residents, to be financed by a 3 to 5 per cent flat rate gross income tax; would repeal the Sales Tax.

Recommended Vote: A.F.L., No Rec.; C.I.O., No Rec.; R.R., YES

PROPOSITION No. 12: RIGHT OF EMPLOYMENT. This would declare the right of employment free from interference because employee does or does not belong to or pay money to a labor organization.

Recommended Vote: A.F.L., NO; C.I.O., NO; R.R., NO.

"HE INDULGED IN SOME CARELESS TALK WHILE IN PORT!"

Democrat

By MIKE SMITH

At this writing, it seems fairly certain that Roosevelt will be returned to office. Practically all of the so-called "impartial experts" are agreed on that.

When Dewey goes down to defeat it will not be because the American people feel he is as bad as some of the campaign orators would have us believe.

Next Wednesday morning T. E. D. will go back to Albany, New York, and go right on being a pretty fair governor just as he has for the last two years. Because he is that kind of a fellow, Tom Dewey will accept the verdict with proper grace.

But not so, some of his most ardent and noisiest supporters. To Hamilton Fish, it will be the greatest personal disappointment in his political life. It will mean that he will merely continue in his role as a disgraceful rather than dangerous member of Congress. The election of Dewey would have automatically made him chairman of the important House Committee on Foreign Affairs. He would have been in a commanding position rather than the laughing stock he is now. Senator Gerald Nye, probably the closest thing we have to an out-and-out fascist in the United States Senate, would have been chairman of the Appropriation Committee, if Dewey should be elected. It is one of the most powerful in that body. At present he is harmless, if somewhat noisy.

Senator Johnson, arch isolationist, would have been Dewey's chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee. Dewey's defeat will mean that never again will this well meaning but highly dangerous old man have an opportunity to play such an important part in the making of history as he did 25 years ago when he helped kill the League of Nations.

William Randolph Hearst will not like it. Neither will Bertie McCormick of the Chicago Tribune, nor Gerald L. H. Smith.

Republican

By DAN ALLEN

It is important to discount many statements from both sides in this campaign, and presumably that is what the so-called independent voter will have done before he votes next Tuesday. Some of those voters have already taken their stand in public, but there are many who will listen to both sides from now on and will make up their minds when they go in the election booth. For these there are some fundamental things to remember.

No one says or really believes that Roosevelt himself is a Communist. His point of view during his three terms, however, has encouraged those who ARE to give up their party and support him for this election because his collectivist tendency toward centralized control from Washington follows the pattern of their own future plans. The tremendous bureaucracy he has built up in 12 years is just about as satisfactory as they could have done themselves, and their infiltration into responsible positions has been well established, on the "Clear it with Sydney" line.

Until recently, we heard comparatively little of the Fourth Term issue, largely because of the general feeling that a precedent once broken might as well be forgotten. But this reasoning is like that of a child, who, when he finds a small hole in the carpet, proceeds to rip it to shreds, on the theory that it was ruined anyway.

A Fourth Term would increase the damage out of all proportion, and might make a permanent end to our personal liberties. The Christian Science Monitor, in an editorial of October 23, says: "They (the Founding Fathers) knew that the decay of free government begins not when one man declares himself to be indispensable but when the people come to think him so."

The Roosevelt record in 12 years has not been one to encourage the belief that he can administer the peace either internationally or domestically. Most of his plans have been hastily drawn up and ineffi-

A Twin Story Related by Nurse Chick

Nurse Chick was in a quandry. A few weeks ago she had promised a story about twins. The question was "What twins?" There were in Marin City several sets of the most adorable twins in the world. How could she tell about one set and not the others?

Only some special occurrence would do. With that thought, a beautiful expression spread over her face. She had it — "Special Delivery".

In thought she found herself again on a farm in Nevada, where she was specializing a critically ill patient. As the patient improved, Nurse Chick found time to enjoy farm life. Occasionally she gathered eggs, watched the milking, picked berries, or just generally got underfoot.

FARM LIFE

She had been on the farm nearly two weeks.

Following the tradition of the country, she had retired early and fallen into peaceful slumber while counting stars in the Milky Way.

Suddenly she was awakened by unusual noises. Her first thought was for the patient to whose bedside she literally flew, only to find her sleeping peacefully and gently blowing bubbles.

Being thoroughly awake, Nurse Chick decided she had been dreaming. It was a lovely and luminous night, so Nurse Chick went out for a stroll.

CAPTURED

Hardly had she started when there was a thunderous commotion as five of the eight older children came dashing down the road.

As they sighted the nurse, they cried in chorus: "Come quickly, she's having her baby." Probably one of the distant neighbors, thought Nurse Chick. Quickly, she considered getting the car, wondering what equipment she might need and whether or not a doctor had been called.

Before she could make a decisive move, however, she was urged forward by the excited youngsters.

All talked at once. It appeared that the baby either was, or was not born; that Sweetheart either was or was not going to have still another.

By this time, they were in the doorway of the barn, and there in the bright glare of uncovered lights was the head of the household tending his favorite cow who had just dropped a gangling calf.

Already on the gleaming straw was a wobbly darling trying to stand up. Sweetheart, the cow, placidly viewed the second calf as it was placed alongside the first, transferring her affectionate washing process to the newcomer.

Nurse Chick stared fascinated. As many deliveries as she had attended, this was one she would remember always as a SPECIAL delivery.

ciently handled. His personal desire to keep control has resulted in the necessity of supposedly responsible officials coming to "Daddy" to settle every small dispute. The turnover of appointed officials in Washington has been tremendous, and it is small wonder so many of these experienced men have had to resign to save their sanity.

What does the Republican program offer in place of all this? Youth for old age, efficient administration for inefficient, cooperation from Congress instead of uncertainty and lack of confidence, cooperation from the States instead of continual argument, post-war decentralization of government contrasted with collectivist tendencies, and, above all, a man who owes nothing to any group contrasted with one who owes to many of the most unsavory groups in U. S. politics.
